

LEARNING TO LEAD

BOYS

---

BOYS are, in point of fact, simply “wired” differently. Their energies, priorities, outlook, psychology, ambitions, sensitivities and perspectives demand a particular style of attention by a deft guiding hand, and a philosophy attuned to the realities of their gender.

LEARNING

---

LEARNING encompasses more than academic mastery. It is a dynamic process in which the enquiring mind – imbued with appropriate thinking skills and being ever curious – is never stilled in its quest for greater knowing and expansion, and sets no limits or boundaries to what it may explore, assimilate and create.

COMMUNITY

---

COMMUNITY is something greater than edifices of bricks and mortar. It is the ethos that permeates those structures... the bond between the inhabitants, the sense of warmth, caring, identity and tolerance... the sharing of mutual values and a common destiny.

TRADITION

---

TRADITION is not some relic of the past to be enshrined and simply enacted as empty ritual, devoid of relevance to the times. It is in fact a precious thing, timeless in its significance... something that serves as a moral and ethical compass for each generation.

SPIRIT

---

SPIRIT goes deeper than waving a banner at a sports carnival. It is a complex mix of loyalty, pride and identity, among many other ingredients... hard to describe easily, but something that takes hold and can be felt beyond question.

LEADERSHIP

---

LEADERSHIP and its characteristics are most clearly manifest when it heads a team, an organisation or a regiment, but it can take a more humble yet no less potent form when one demonstrates the self-same qualities through the conduct of one's daily life.

SPIRITUALITY

---

SPIRITUALITY is not something confined to Sundays and Chapels, but is instead infused into the whole person... a guiding light that creates the realisation of being part of something bigger than the narrow confines of self or the material world.

COURAGE

---

COURAGE is more than just bravery in the face of danger... it can be holding to your principles in the face of opposition, resisting peer pressure, challenging your own limitations, abandoning outmoded beliefs, walking away, standing firm.
