

RIDBC Alice Betteridge School

RIDBC Alice Betteridge School provides an environment in which students who have a hearing and/or vision loss, as well as level of intellectual impairment, receive a tailored education program to optimise their participation and learning.

We support students between 4½ and 18 years of age with a NSW Board of Studies curriculum that has been adapted to suit their needs.

Features:

- Small class sizes with high adult/student ratio
- Individualised programs for each child
- Highly professional and committed teachers and specialist staff
- Excellent facilities
- Focus on the communication needs related to hearing and/vision loss
